Market Commentary

Equity markets delivered positive returns over the quarter, continuing their recovery from the tariff-induced volatility experienced in early April. Better than expected corporate earnings, strong performance in the technology sector and the Federal Reserve resuming interest rate cuts increased investor confidence.

The Bank of England cut interest rates by 0.25% to 4% over the quarter, however expectations of further cuts this year were lowered as inflation approached 4%. Meanwhile, in the US, the Federal Reserve cut interest rates by 0.25% for the first time this year. Investors are expecting additional rate cuts in the US this year as early signs of a weakening labour market appear.

Global equities rose 9.7% over the quarter, with positive returns for all equity regions. Emerging Markets and Asia-Pacific ex Japan were the best performing regions over the quarter, returning 12.8% and 12.3% respectively.

Bond markets continued to lag equities as investors remain concerned over government debt levels and the ability of a Federal Reserve to manage inflation while under pressure from Trump to cut interest rates further. Gilts and UK corporate bonds returned -0.8% and 0.7%, while global government bonds and global corporate bonds performed better, returning 0.8% and 2.2% over the quarter. Emerging market bonds also had a positive quarter, returning 5.3%. The dollar strengthened over the quarter which will positively impact returns on US equities for UK investors.
